Pizza Day

Dear St. Paul Families,

As I drove home from our Christmas concert last night, my heart was full. What a day filled with joy I had with your wonderful children! I am truly blessed, as we all are here at St. Paul, to spend our days with these special little people. We started our day with our last advent season morning prayer time. These daily gatherings are a perfect way to start each day, and the special prayers and songs we have shared during this season of preparing our hearts for Jesus have been so uplifting and encouraging. We then had a very special surprise visit from Santa and Mrs. Claus! The kids were so delighted and I had such fun capturing their excitement with a picture! (I will share those with you, but you may have to be a little patient!) The rest of the school day we flew around the world to learn about Christmas customs in countries such as Mexico, France, Italy, Switzerland, the Ukraine, Brundi, Germany, and Poland. It was fun to learn the many ways people all around the world celebrate the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ! The day ended on a perfect “note” with the beautiful voices of Bluewave angels! So sweet, so pure, so innocent, just like the precious baby Jesus. It was truly a day when, despite all the hustle and bustle, I can’t help but recognize, appreciate and cherish the opportunity to see and share God’s love, the true reason for the season. Our sharing the Mass together today was the cherry on top, a day to come together as a community of God to praise and thank Him for this most marvelous gift. Thank you all for sharing your children with us daily, to help us realize the precious gift of life and love that God gave to the world in his son Jesus. My wish for all of you this Christmas is the same peace and love of God that I felt last night, time to share the miracle of Christmas with those you hold dear, and a New Year filled with a deepened commitment to spreading that love to the world. God Bless.

Mrs. Heatwole

MERRY CHRISTMAS!
AND A BLESSED NEW YEAR!

The St. Paul 5th Grade took their annual TOY (Think Outside Yourself) field trip on Friday, December 15. The students brought their own money and went to Walmart to buy toys.

Ms. Schueller and Mrs. Heatwole also helped pay for the toys.

They delivered the toys to the Owosso Fire Station and donated them to Toys for Tots.
