A Note From Mrs. Smith...

Dear Parents and Students,

Catholic Schools Week has been awesome! We kicked off the week with the glue that binds us here at SPS—Mass! Thank you to all who attended. After Mass we honored our ever-appreciated volunteers with a soup & sandwich luncheon. Our small, yet mighty school simply could not exist without our Blue Wave families who give tirelessly in support of the work we do here—thank you! Mrs. Bischof organized some great math games with our middle schoolers, which was the perfect way to end our CSW kick-off; I was very impressed by the games that were created, and my Franklin love them. Monday just HAD to be a snow day—you see I can't remember a CSW that didn't include an unexpected day off because of snow! But we still fit all of our fun plans in...dressed as our favorite book characters, brought some sunshine to our week with a Luau, and had an amazing author, Alan St. Jean, visit to share his writings, wit, and encouraging words for young authors. Today we wrap it up with Adoration, Benediction, and our annual, beloved Blue Wave Games, which will, of course, end with the staff vs. 8th grade volleyball game. Thank you for believing in and supporting St. Paul Catholic School!! I pray daily, and invite you to join me, for our school to grow and succeed so we can continue to educate our children to academic success while always keeping God as our focus and Heaven our Goal!

Odds & Ends...

Valentine's Day Party
Our 6th graders have decided to have an afternoon of games and treats (surprise!) They would LIKE to have fondue—cheese and chocolate—so I'm asking if any parents want to supply these. Please let me know by Wednesday of next week if you can provide the cheese or chocolate for dipping our goodies. :)

Peace, Mrs. Smith
