Dear Kindergarten families,

Thank you for helping your children to reach their reading goals for March is reading month! They are so excited to have reached "God's Sweet Kingdom"! They will be rewarded by attending a special donuts and milk celebration on Thursday!

As you may be aware, this week is the end of the third marking period. Report cards will be finished and able to view for your child on Power School on Monday, April 9.

I hope you and your families have a wonderful and blessed Spring break!

Happy Easter!

Ms. Jones

We have been studying money for the last couple of weeks. If you have the chance to do so, please allow your child to count change, identify coins and figure out how much they are worth.

Thank you! 😊
